[Approved, January 4, 1889.]

CONSTITUTION

I.

The name of this Society shall be THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

II.

Its object shall be the promotion of historical studies.

III.

Any person approved by the Executive Council may become a member by paying three dollars, and after the first year may continue a member by paying an annual fee of three dollars. On payment of fifty dollars, any person may become a life-member exempt from fees. Persons not resident in the United States may be elected as honorary or corresponding members, and be exempt from the payment of fees.

IV.

The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Secretary of the Council, a Curator, a Treasurer, and an Executive Council consisting of the foregoing officers and six other members elected by the Association with the Ex-Presidents of the Association. These officers shall be elected by ballot at each regular annual meeting of the Association.

V.

The Executive Council shall have charge of the general interests of the Association, including the election of members, the calling of meetings, the selection of papers to be read, and the determination of what papers shall be published.

VI.

This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting, notice of such amendment having been given at the previous annual meeting, or the proposed amendment having received the approval of the Executive Council.

ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

The American Historical Association was organized at Saratoga, N. Y., on September 10, 1884, with an enrollment of 40 members, and incorporated by act of Congress of January 4, 1889.

Any person approved by the executive council may become a member. Applications for membership and nominations (by persons already members) of new members should be addressed to the Secretary, 500 Bond Building, Washington, D. C.

The annual dues are fixed at $3.00, payable on September 1, for the ensuing year. Life membership, with exemption from annual dues, may be secured upon payment of $50.00.

The publications regularly distributed to members are the American Historical Review, the Annual Report, and the Handbook. The first of these is published quarterly (October, January, April, July) under the direction of a board of editors elected by the executive council. Each number contains 200 or more pages and is composed of articles, documents, reviews of books, and notes and news. The Annual Report, printed by order of Congress, is in one or two volumes and contains the proceedings of the annual meetings, the annual bibliography of writings on American history, the report of the Public Archives Commission with its appendices consisting of inventories, catalogues, etc., of materials in state and other archives, and collections of documents edited by the Historical Manuscripts Commission. The Handbook, containing the names, addresses, and professional positions of members, is published biennially. Back numbers of the American Historical Review may be obtained from the Macmillan Company of New York. Copies of the Annual Reports of past years, or of separates of articles or publications appearing therein, may be obtained, so far as available, from the Secretary of the Association.

The prize essays of the Association are published in a separate series, one volume appearing each year, and are supplied to members for $1.00 each, to non-members for $1.50.

The Study of History in Elementary Schools, being the report of the Committee of Eight (1909), is published by Charles Scribner's Sons of New York, at fifty cents.

The Study of History in Secondary Schools, being the report of the Committee of Seven (1899), is published by the Macmillan Company of New York, at fifty cents. A revision, by the Committee of Five, is about to be published.

Original Narratives of Early American History is a series of reprints edited for the Association by J. F. Jameson and published by Charles Scribner's Sons of New York, at $3.00 a volume.

The annual meetings of the Association are held during the period December 27-31, in various cities. At these meetings are sessions with formal papers, sessions partaking of the nature of round-table conferences, and conferences of archivists and of historical societies. Annual meetings of other associations, the interests of which are allied to those of the American Historical Association, are generally held at the same time and place.

Committees on archives, on historical manuscripts, on bibliography, on various phases of history-teaching, on historical sites and monuments, as well as other committees appointed from time to time for special purposes, carry on the activities of the Association throughout the year.
